

StickerBox Idea Starters & Coloring Activity Guide

30 voice-prompt starters, coloring challenges, and sticker games for kids.

How to play

1. Press the button and say the idea out loud, nice and clear.
2. Wait for the sticker, then color it before you peel it.
3. Stick it in a notebook, on a card, or on the fridge gallery.
4. Try one challenge a day. Keep the best stickers in a sticker book.

Voice-prompt starters (say it, print it, color it)

- A tiger eating ice cream on a beach.
- A robot who bakes birthday cakes.
- A cat wearing rain boots in the rain.
- A dinosaur riding a skateboard.
- A mermaid who lives in a teacup.
- A dragon who is afraid of the dark.
- A pirate penguin with a treasure map.
- A unicorn driving a tiny red car.
- A frog who runs a lemonade stand.
- A bear building a treehouse.
- A snail racing a race car.
- A wizard with a very messy hat.
- A monkey who paints rainbows.
- A fish who wants to fly.
- A snowman on a summer holiday.
- A koala who loves to dance.
- A superhero hamster.
- A jellyfish wearing sunglasses.
- A castle made of cheese.
- A train that travels to the moon.

Coloring challenges

- Rainbow only: color a whole sticker using only rainbow colors.
- Opposite day: color the sky green and the grass blue.
- Pattern hunt: add stripes, dots, and stars to every sticker.
- Story strip: print 4 stickers and arrange them into a story.
- Gift tag: print a sticker, color it, and stick it on a gift.

Sticker games

- Scavenger hunt: hide stickers as clues around the house.
- Trading day: swap your best sticker with a friend.
- Mood board: make a board of stickers that show how you feel.
- Thank-you cards: stick a colored sticker on every card you send.

Parent tips: keep spare paper rolls ready, store stickers flat, and let kids lead the ideas. The best stickers come from the silliest prompts.

Free bonus guide from ZoxDeal. Not affiliated with Hapiko or Spin Master.